What happens when 6 archetypes encounter their less than perfect doubles in life?

Curated by SAIC 2007 Defining 20th + 21st Century Dress Class

- The 50's housewife.
- The hero.
- The ill-fated star crossed lovers.
- The rebel/outcast.
- The sage.
- The trickster.

What happens when these archetypes encounter their doppelgangers or less than perfect doubles in life? Double Walkers: Transfigurations Thru Fashion is an exhibition that explores the realities of these six archetypes as materialized through fashion, the body, and the environment. Live models and mannequins will occupy six unconventional spaces at Hyde Park Art Center. Choreographed performers will engage the audience on opening night by deconstructing and reconstructing these spaces. This exhibit is a study of relationships that will provoke views on mythology, society, and behavior. Double Walkers continues through Dec 16, 2007 with 14 mannequins displaying both sets of garments.
